

I would like to offer my objection to the softening of Indiana's Telephone Privacy Laws. It has been of great benefit to myself and my family not to have to deal with unsolicited phone calls and intrusions into our daily lives. I have never felt that these laws have inhibited or denied my ability to do business with any corporation in Indiana or elsewhere. Please keep our privacy laws intact. Sincerely, Joyce L Hawkins